To New Students

A college is more than classrooms, books, and examinations. It is a community of learning with certain laws and traditions, certain activities and personalities, which make it different from any place else in the world.

We, the editors of the student handbook, want to acquaint you with Wake Forest College. We will try to give you a general picture of the school—as it is now and as it evolved through the years—so you may see what makes Wake Forest unique.

Read the handbook through, learn about your school, then experience life there for yourself. Wake Forest stands ready to contribute to your future. And, as you bring the influence of yourself to the college community, you will have a part in building the future of Wake Forest.

ATMOSPHERE

Traditions

College traditions play a major role in creating “the Wake Forest spirit.” They have been an integral part of the college since its beginning in 1834, and as the college grew, new traditions were added.

Some say that, in the move to the new campus, Wake Forest lost its traditions. But now that the last class which attended school on the old campus has graduated, we have a chance to prove that the Wake Forest spirit was really transplanted along with the college.

Of course some traditions could not be moved from the old campus to the new—like ringing the old bell in Wait Hall after a sports victory or slipping down to Shorty's for a hamburger. There are other traditions, though, which have been brought along to Reynolda and which we must nurture so they will survive the move.

One of the most cherished traditions is the atmosphere of friendliness which prevails on the campus. The Wake Forest custom of speaking to people, whether you know them or not, is time-honored. From the first day of orientation through your graduation day, a smile and a greeting is the expected result whenever you meet anyone on the campus.

As you settle down into the routine of lectures, labs, quizzes, and term papers, you will discover another Wake Forest tradition—the high caliber of our faculty and administration. Consistently through the years Wake Forest has attracted men who have been willing to dedicate a major portion of their lives to the service of the school.

In your classes you will find that Wake Forest students as well as their professors bear certain traditional responsibilities. Under the Honor System, each student pledges to do his own academic work, and he is trusted to live up to his word.

Tradition extends beyond the classroom into the field of extra-curricular activities, too. And not all our college traditions are old ones. Some have developed since the move to Winston—such as Greek Week, week-end movies on campus, and parties at the Barn. From the Homecoming game and dance in the early fall until the Magnolia Festival just before graduation, you will be introduced to the annual round of Wake Forest activities.

History

The College was founded Feb. 3, 1834, as Wake Forest Institute. Dr. Samuel Wait was the first principal. An agency of the Baptist State Convention, the school had a twofold purpose—to give collegiate instruction in the arts and sciences, and to give training under Christian influences, especially to provide educated ministers.

For five years Wake Forest was a manual labor school, training students in agriculture as well as in the liberal arts. But in December, 1838, it was re-chartered as Wake Forest College. Four men received the Bachelor of Arts degree when the first class graduated in June, 1839.

Wake Forest was exclusively a college of liberal arts until June, 1894, when the School of Law was established. The School of Medicine was formed in May, 1902, was moved to Winston-Salem in 1941, and is now known as the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest College.

The rest of the college followed the medical school to Winston-Salem in 1956, moving from the town of Wake Forest in Wake County. The old campus and buildings were sold to the Southern Baptist Convention, and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is now located there.

A three-volume work entitled A History of Wake Forest College was written several years ago by the late Dr. G. W. Paschal, Greek professor at the College, and is for sale at the College.

The Campus

One thing that makes Wake Forest distinctively different is its new campus. The trek from the old campus in Wake County to the new one at Winston-Salem made headlines in 1956.

There were several reasons for the move. In 1946, the Trustees of the College and the Baptist State Convention accepted an offer made by the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation of Winston-Salem to give the College $350,000 annually in perpetuity on condition that it move to Winston-Salem.

The Charles H. Babcock family donated a part of their Reynolda estate outside Winston-Salem for the new campus, and groundbreaking ceremonies were held Oct. 15, 1951, with Harry Truman, then President of the United States, delivering the principal address.

In 1955 the Reynolds Foundation increased the annual payments to the College to $500,000. The actual move to the new campus was completed in June, 1956, and summer school classes began at that time.

Now, three years later, 14 brick buildings stand surrounded by grass, trees and shrubbery on the campus. The architecture is modified Georgian, designed by Jens F. Larson. In addition to the college buildings, there are 10 faculty apartment buildings, 56 apartments and a trailer camp for married students, and the president's home.

The buildings are as follows:

Wait Chapel, at the head of the campus plaza. The chapel, named for Dr. Samuel Wait, the college's first president, doubles as a center of campus religious activity and an auditorium. It is the home of the campus Baptist church. Attached to Wait Chapel on the northern end is Wingate Hall, a four-story building housing the church's educational departments and the College's departments of religion, music, philosophy, and sociology. Also located in the building is Paul Price Davis Memorial Chapel.

Reynolda Hall, at the southern end of the Plaza, facing Wait Chapel, is the administrative and student activities center. The wing on the west end of the building houses all administrative offices of the College and the wing on the east end provides for student organizations and activities. Also in the building are the cafeteria, a soda shop, lounges, conference rooms, banquet rooms, classrooms, and the campus restaurant, the Magnolia Room.

The Z. Smith Reynolds Library building is presently divided between classrooms, offices, and library rooms. Four floors of rooms for reading, reference and other uses are available, and the library has a capacity for about one million books.

The campus grill work is adorned with Wake Forest's initials.

W. N. Reynolds Gymnasium contains facilities for practically all sports and also houses the ROTC department. Basketball courts, a swimming pool, courts for other indoor sports, and classrooms and offices for the physical education and athletic departments are in the building.

The Science Building accommodates the basic sciences, chemistry, biology and physics. This building contains many laboratories, classrooms, offices and a large lecture room.

The Law Building, reserved for the School of Law, has classrooms, a moot court and assembly room, and the law library, among other things.

Wake Forest men live in four quadrangles of dormitories bordering the plaza. Northeast of the plaza is Poteat Dorm. Taylor Dorm is on the northwest, Kitchin Dorm is southeast and Davis Dorm is southwest. Connecting Taylor and Poteat with Wait Chapel are two wings, Efirid and Huffman Halls.

Bostwick and Johnson Dormitories for women are located at the south end of the campus.

Facing the plaza and housed in the men's dorms are a post office, a bank, a book store, men's and women's clothing stores, a barber shop and a photography studio. Wake Forest Laundry is housed in Taylor Dorm.

The Winston Area

The Winston-Salem area abounds with recreational and cultural opportunities for the student.

In addition to a concert-lecture series sponsored by the College, students may attend programs of such local groups as the Civic Music Association, the Little Theater, the Winston-Salem Symphony and the Winston-Salem Operetta Association.

For relaxation and light entertainment the city has several motion picture theaters and miniature golf courses. The City Recreation Department operates 25 recreation centers and four parks, with facilities for all types of indoor and outdoor activities. Many fine restaurants are located in and around the Winston-Salem area.

Student golfers may play at two public courses, Hillcrest Golf Club and Reynolds Park, and at the Old Town Club. In baseball, the Winston-Salem Red Birds is the local farm team of the St. Louis Cardinals in the Class B Carolina League.

Other opportunities for recreation may be found in the area surrounding the city. "Tanglewood," the William and Kate B. Reynolds Memorial Park, offers swimming, horseback riding, fishing, games, miniature golf and picnicking.

Hanging Rock State Park, located 30 miles north of Winston, and Pilot Mountain Park, 25 miles northwest of the city, attract many students during the fall and spring months. The scenic Blue Ridge Parkway is only 47 miles from the campus.

Of special interest is Old Salem, being restored as one of the finest examples of colonial life in the United States. Salem Academy, founded in 1772, is the oldest preparatory school for girls in the South. Salem College is a distinguished four-year college for women. Traditional services of the Moravian Church at Easter and at Christmas are attended by people from all over the nation.

Winston-Salem has a total of 121 churches, including 22 denominations and one interdenominational church.

Reynolda Gardens

Beautiful Reynolda Gardens, a much-visited attraction near the campus, was given to Wake Forest two years ago by the Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation and Charles H. Babcock.

Located just off Reynolda Road, the gardens are noted primarily for their weeping Japanese cherry trees.

In deeding the property to the College, Foundation officials said, "It is the purpose and desire of the grantors to enhance the educational facilities of Wake Forest College, particularly in the field of botany, and to enhance the cultural services which Wake Forest College is now rendering to the community and to the state, and to establish Reynolda Gardens of Wake Forest College."

PERSONALITIES

The Administration

Every college, of course, has an administration, but Wake Forest feels that its own officials are distinctive in their concern for the students. The officials and their staffs join with the professors to see that each student is treated as an individual and is given the best that Wake Forest has to offer him.

These are the administrators of our college:

Student Government

Wake Forest students enjoy a high degree of independence in regulating their own behavior and activities. The Student Government is organized under the Constitution of the Student Body.

The president of the student body, central figure in Student Government affairs, is Don Schoonmaker. Other student body officers are Buddy Young, vice-president; Janice Priode, secretary; and Jim Turner, treasurer.

The Student Legislature has full responsibility for making all laws relative to student body activities. Its members represent the four undergraduate classes. By virtue of his office, the student body vice-president is Speaker of the Legislature.

Student committees are set up by the Legislature to work parallel with faculty committees. Chairmen of six student committees plus the four student body officers form the executive cabinet of the student body, which discusses matters to be presented to the Legislature.

The Honor Council, composed of eight men and eight women, is the judicial branch of the Student Government. Sitting as a court, the Council rules on the innocence or guilt of a person charged with violating the Honor System. When a student is found to be guilty, the Council determines his penalty. Jim Herring is chairman of the Honor Council, and Fran Joyce is secretary.

From the Alumni

More than fourteen thousand of us once sat where you sit. Now we are just about everywhere—businessmen, doctors, lawyers, teachers, ministers, missionaries, writers, farmers, manufacturers, husbands, wives, parents.

Both you and we will always hold one thing in common—a growing appreciation of our college days and devotion to the high ideals that become part of us at Wake Forest.

Looking over our shoulders, we hail you with affection and faith as our younger brothers and sisters in the fellowship of our alma mater's growing family. We have preceded you a bit in time along the journey, but we shall be joined henceforth with you in meaningful companionship because of our common heritage.

While you are on the Wake Forest campus, we want you to know about the aims and program of the Alumni Association. You will become automatically a member of this organization at the end of your student days at the College.

Objectives of the Association are "to nourish friendly relations among its members; to maintain and strengthen in alumni the best spirit and ideals of the College; to secure cooperation of alumni and the public in helping the College to render the most effective service possible."

Throughout North Carolina and in other states alumni clubs meet periodically to receive news from and about the College and to achieve the objectives mentioned above. The Wake Forest Magazine goes to every alumnus whose address is known, keeping him abreast of campus life and activities of other alumni.

Wake Forest College has surpassed in "bulk achievement" all other Baptist colleges in the United States, according to Dr. Clarence E. Lovejoy of Columbia University in a statement based on a 1949 study of American colleges and universities. He was referring to achievements of Wake Forest alumni who have become college presidents, deans, professors, authors, bankers, executives, statesmen, and servants of mankind in numerous other fields.

In material support, alumni have given in large and small sums more than a million dollars in recent years for construction on the new campus. One of them made a bequest, valued at more than a million dollars, for a scholarship fund for the benefit of students. Others have also established scholarships of great value. Alumni giving annually through a living endowment program are a perennial source of strength to the College in its service to present and future students.

Scores of alumni have been generous of their time, talents, interest, influence, and devotion in helping to make and keep their alma mater strong and useful. Your opportunities at Wake Forest will be greater because of them.

So, on behalf of the thousands of Wake Forest men and women who are, as our fight song says, "unrivaled by any," we hail you with delight and welcome you to the ranks of a loyal company.

Our congratulations upon the rich opportunities opening to you on the Wake Forest campus!

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

The Student Union

A Student Union program, similar to those at Duke University and the University of North Carolina, was begun at Wake Forest last fall. It seeks to provide entertainment for students throughout the year, including movies, talent shows, concerts, lectures, and social functions. And at the same time it draws the various groups of students—fraternities, independent men, and coeds—into a closer-knit community.

Bob Yarbrough is Student Union president this year. Chuck Jones is vice-president, and Betty Bruce Howard is secretary.

The Barn, leased by the campus church and located on the Babcock Estate, is the setting for many student activities. Under the sponsorship of the Student Union, the Barn provides a place for dancing, snacks, games, and informal parties.

A fee of $1.50 will be collected from each student at registration to pay for the semester's Student Union activities. Another $1.50 will be required in the spring.

Those who have worked to initiate the program hope that all students will participate in the activities and help make the Student Union a success again this year.

Social Fraternities

One of the first questions facing a male student who enrolls at Wake Forest is whether he will join one of the ten Greek-letter social fraternities on campus. Each of these organizations starts the school year with a "rushing" program designed to interest new students in joining its ranks.

During the year fraternities have numerous dances and informal parties and are active in such phases of college life as intramural athletics and campus politics. Furthermore, fraternities urge their members to participate in extracurricular activities and excel in scholastic work.

If the new student decides to pledge a social fraternity, he must then choose which one, provided that he receives an invitation from more than one group. When a person joins a fraternity, he is selecting an organization and a group of men with whom he wishes to be affiliated during his entire college career. It is a decision that should not be made hastily or without serious consideration.

The Interfraternity Council is the central governing body for all fraternities on campus. Its main purpose, in addition to regulating rushing, pledging and initiation of students, is to sponsor social functions for the fraternity men and their guests. The annual IFC dances, usually featuring a big-name band, are the highlights of fraternity social life. The faculty committee on fraternities works in conjunction with the IFC to maintain high standards of conduct and scholarship among fraternity men.

Bruce Hutchison of Lambda Chi Alpha is president of the IFC.

The fraternities and their presidents for 1959-60 are:

Alpha Sigma Phi.....Orrin Clifton
Delta Sigma Phi.....Francis Fenderson

Kappa Alpha	Willis Maddrey
Kappa Sigma	Howard Bullard
Lambda Chi Alpha	Mike Steadman
Pi Kappa Alpha	Donnie Griffin
Sigma Chi	George Williamson
Sigma Phi Epsilon	Wayne Jordan
Sigma Pi	Jim Bowman

Fraternity Rushing Rules

1. These rushing regulations, applying to rushing of all students except as specifically stated otherwise, shall take effect on the first day of fall registration and continue in effect until October 14, 1959. (For purposes of these regulations a fraternity man is an active member, an alumnus, a pledge or anyone authorized as an agent of the fraternity.)

2. Before any freshman may pledge a fraternity he must have an IFC Rushing Card signed by an officer of each of the ten fraternities. These cards can be found in each fraternity house. Completed cards will be turned in on October 14, 1959, at 7:00 P.M., at the Dean's office by those wishing to pledge a fraternity.

3. No freshman may be in any fraternity section after 7:30 P.M. Monday through Thursday night. The sole exception to this rule is the evening smoker, held between 8 and 11 P.M. This smoker shall be considered as formal. Attendance will be limited to men, although wives of students and of faculty members and house mothers may serve refreshments. The afternoon smoker shall not end any later than 6 P.M.

4. No fraternity man (as previously defined) may be in the freshman dormitories (Poteat or Kitchin) between the hours of 9 P.M. and 7 A.M., Monday through Thursday.

5. Between the opening of school and October 14, each fraternity may have two individual parties, which may be held on the week-ends of September 19, September 26 or October 10. A fraternity may spend not more than $150 for these two parties combined and an itemized account of all expenses must be presented to the IFC Social Chairman for each party. On the evening of October 3, each fraternity will hold an open house on campus, the idea being for rushees to circulate throughout the ten houses on campus with their dates if they wish. The maximum a fraternity may spend on this party is $40, and no combo, regardless of origin or cost, will be permitted.

6. No rushing entertainment may be provided for or offered to any rushee at any time except at the evening or afternoon smokers and at the three parties mentioned in Rule 5.

7. No fraternity may spend more than $40 overall for the evening smoker, or more than $25 overall for the afternoon smoker. The treasurer of each fraternity shall file an itemized list of smoker expenses with the IFC Social Chairman.

8. No smokers may be held except on the Wake Forest College campus as defined by the boundaries of the Reynolda land grant or within 400 yards of Reynolda Hall.

9. Silence period will start at 7 P.M. October

13 and extend until the man reaches the section of his choice on October 14 at 7 P.M. or until midnight on that date. During this period no rushee is to visit any fraternity section or converse with any fraternity man.

10. At 7 P.M. October 14 each freshman rushee shall indicate his choice of a fraternity to the Dean of the College and then go to the fraternity which he intends to pledge. One IFC representative from each of the ten fraternities, respectively, will be stationed outside the Dean's office to enforce silence period.

11. Any fraternity violating rules 2-10 may be penalized by a fine of $50 for each infraction.

12. Upperclassmen and transfers with at least sophomore standing (24 hours and 24 quality points) may be pledged at any time. Summer school freshmen may not be pledged until October 14.

13. No man may be pledged to a social fraternity, and, after relinquishing or being deprived of his pledgeship to the aforesaid fraternity, repledge the original fraternity or pledge another social fraternity during the same semester.

14. Pledging shall be free and open after October 14.

Initiation Requirements

The Interfraternity Council has set up minimum requirements which each student must meet in order to be eligible for initiation into a social fraternity. The IFC Constitution, Article IX, Section 3, provides that:

A. Any student transferring to the College with 24 or more hours and an equal number of quality points is immediately eligible for initiation.

B. No student, unless covered in (A) above, may be initiated into any fraternity until he shall have passed at least 12 hours of work and made at least 12 quality points in the first semester he is enrolled in the College or passed at least 12 hours of work and made at least 12 quality points at any subsequent grade period (9 weeks or end of semester).

C. Any student on probation for any reason shall not be initiated until his period of probation is completed.

Violation of the provision is punishable in accordance with the provisions of the IFC Constitution.

Chapter Room Use

A. Married women, accompanied by their husbands, shall be allowed in normally recognized social or chapter rooms (on the first floor only) of fraternities, and a mother or father shall be considered sufficient chaperone for his or her own daughter. This is permissible between the hours of 2-9 P.M.

B. Mixed groups shall be allowed in normally recognized social chapter rooms (on the first floor only) of fraternities between the hours of 12 noon and 7 P.M. on Saturdays of home football games or Interfraternity Council dances provided there is present either chaperones or a lady designated by the Social Committee as "chapter hostess."

C. Except as stated in A and B above, all general regulations, except article 5, shall be applicable to parties given in fraternity quarters.

D. Violations of B or C, if reported to the Social Committee and verified by it, shall result in the denial of house and group social privileges for a period of time to be fixed by the Social Committee, but not to extend beyond the start of the next succeeding academic year; further, such violation even though disciplined by the Social Committee may still be subject to such actions as are provided in the Constitution of the Student Government Council, or as may be determined by the Executive and/or the Constitution of the Interfraternity Committee of the Faculty.

Campus Politics

For the past two years Wake Forest students have been divided into two political parties, the College Party and the United Party.

In the United Party are two fraternities, Sigma Chi and Theta Chi, as well as non-fraternity men

Despite the rain, campus politicians prepare to plaster the campus with posters, banners, and hand bills.

And at election time last spring there were eight fraternities in the College Party—Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Sigma Phi, Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Sigma Pi. Coeds and non-fraternity men also affiliate with the College Party.

After elections, however, a few fraternities left the College Party. So the elections this spring should be lively—with new parties, or a least a different balance between the old.

Thirty-eight student government offices are what the parties and their candidates aspire to. In the spring the parties select their candidates and conduct active campaigns for them. Posters and rallies are used when the big day approaches. Elections are usually quite close, and the voting turnout is large.

Election of freshman class officers will be held early in October, and you will have an opportunity to participate. All you need to run, and perhaps to win, is a few signatures on your nomination petition and plenty of the spirit that makes campus politics exciting.

Intercollegiate Sports

In intercollegiate sports the College is a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, one of the finest athletic circuits in the nation. Wake Forest teams are popularly called the Demon Deacons.

The year-round varsity sports schedule includes football, basketball, baseball, track, wrestling, cross country, golf, tennis, and swimming. Freshman teams have full schedules in all intercollegiate sports.

Other schools in the ACC are Duke University, the University of North Carolina, N. C. State College, Clemson College, and the Universities of South Carolina, Maryland, and Virginia.

Deacon athletic teams have brought much national recognition to Wake Forest.

Wake footballers now are playing home games at Bowman Gray Stadium in Winston-Salem, but plans call for a new stadium near the campus to be constructed in a few years. Home basketball games are played in Winston-Salem's Memorial Coliseum near the campus. Ernie Shore Field, near the Coliseum, is the scene of home baseball games.

Intramural Sports

The department of physical education provides a varied intramural sports program that appeals to the interests of several hundred Wake Forest students every year.

Intramural sports include touch football, golf and tennis (both fall and spring), volleyball, handball, table tennis, badminton, horseshoes and softball.

Competition in team sports is on the basis of fraternity and non-fraternity, or independent, teams. Any individual or group of individuals may organize teams and enter competition in any sport. Individual sports are run on a single-elimination basis, and anyone is eligible to enter. Trophies are awarded to individual and team winners in every sport.

The intramural program is under the direction of Dr. Taylor Dodson of the department of physical education. In 1948 the intramural student manager system was inaugurated to assist the physical education department in the intramural program. The intramural manager and assistant managers are appointed by the physical education staff and handle the details necessary for operation of the program.

Women's Athletics

The women's division of the department of physical education offers each woman an opportunity, through participation in team and individual sports, rhythms, aquatics and tumbling, to acquire skill and knowledge in all phases of physical activities.

Two semesters of physical education are required of all freshman women. Grades are based primarily on achievement in the activity.

Woman's Recreation Association sponsors extracurricular athletics and recreation for women. Individual awards and trophies are based on points which coeds may accumulate by participating in various activities and tournaments.

The Physical Education Major's Club is composed of all women who are majoring in physical education and those who are interested in it as a profession.

Student Publications

Publications at Wake Forest include a newspaper, a magazine, an annual and a radio station. Through these media students are informed of campus happenings, learn what other students are thinking, and are supplied with a record of a year's activities at the College.

The publications are governed by a Faculty Publications Board composed of faculty advisers and a Student Publications Board composed of the editors and business managers from each staff. The four offices are located on "Pub Row" in the east wing of Reynolda Hall's second floor. Participation is open to all students.

OLD GOLD AND BLACK

Old Gold and Black, student newspaper, is distributed each Monday during the year, except during and immediately after holiday periods. It is the principal means of student communication and its pages are filled with general and sports news, feature articles, editorials, pictures and advertising. It is a week-by-week story of Wake Forest—what happened and what will happen, with interpretation of the news. For the past six years the paper has received All-American ratings from the Associated Collegiate Press, ranking it among the top college publications in the nation. John Alford is the editor, and Brent Filson is business manager.

THE STUDENT

The College magazine is The Student, an outlet for the creative abilities of students. Short stories, feature articles, poems, and cartoons are among the material included in the magazine. It is published monthly during the school year and is the oldest college publication, having been founded in 1882. Anyone may submit copy for publication even if he is not on the regular staff. Janet Binkley is the editor.

THE HOWLER

The Howler, College yearbook, is a word-and-picture story of the year's activities and a valuable record for future reference. Individual, group, and action pictures are included to record the complete story of college life. The Howler has appeared each year since 1903. Ann Whicker and Bill Smith are co-editors, and Rowland Matteson is business manager.

WFDD is the "voice of Wake Forest College," bringing campus and national news to students along with sports programs and music to suit any mood. Affiliated with the National Association of Collegiate Broadcasters, the station operates during the afternoons and nights. Main feature of the station is its Deaconlight Serenade, which is also broadcast over WSJS, Winston-Salem radio station. Tommy Chambers is station manager, and Lionel Branscomb is business manager.

The College Theater

Aspiring actors find opportunities in the College Theater to display their talents for acting, lighting, staging and make-up.

In addition to learning the essentials of the theater, students are awarded points for participation which may entitle them to membership in Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatics fraternity.

The Theater presents five major productions a year. Besides these, the coming season will include workshops for freshmen and several one-act plays directed by students.

Plays are now presented in a theater located on the fourth floor of the Library. In the future the College plans to construct a Fine Arts Building that will meet all the needs of a college theater group.

James H. Walton is director of the Theater, which was begun in 1943. Participation is open to all interested students.

College Debating

Wake Forest debaters, traditionally successful in collegiate debate circles, have won national recognition for the College. The teams usually attend intercollegiate forensic tournaments at such places as New York, Miami, Washington, West Point, and Notre Dame.

The College sponsors the Dixie Classics Debate Tournament each winter, bringing outstanding national teams to the campus. Novice debate teams are also organized and a novice tournament is held in the fall.

Wake Forest annually is among the top teams in the nation, taking both team and individual honors at various tournaments each year. Oratory, extemporaneous, impromptu and after-dinner speaking are also stressed. Franklin R. Shirley is director of the debate squad.

Literary Societies

The Euzelian and Philomathesian Literary Societies, whose purpose is the intellectual improvement of their members, are the oldest student organizations on campus. They came into being in 1834, the year the College was founded.

Membership at first was compulsory, for the societies were an integral part of college life. But since the establishment of numerous administrative departments and social and professional fraternities, the literary societies have been reduced in number to small groups of students interested in training themselves in public speaking, parliamentary procedure and literary appreciation.

Both societies occupy meeting halls on the second floor of Reynolda Hall's east wing.

In addition to their regular meetings, the societies hold Society Day contests to determine which group will claim the society cup. Competition consists of debates, orations, declamations, poetry readings, impromptu and extemporaneous speeches, after-dinner speeches, and dramatic readings.

This year, Bill Horne will serve as president of the Philomathesian Society, and Janet Binkley will preside over the Euzelians.

Religious Activities

The Baptist Student Union directs student religious activities on the campus. The purpose of the program is to afford every member of the student body an opportunity to come to an understanding and acceptance of a faith in God, to develop that faith in service, to discover its relevancy to all areas of life and to participate actively in the program of a local church.

All students may participate in BSU activities. Membership is based upon the student's voluntary choice and/or membership in a local Baptist church. Students of other denominations who take part in such groups as Westminster Fellowship (for Presbyterians), Wesley Foundation (for Methodists), and Canterbury Club (for Episcopalians) are given representation on the BSU Council.

Several unit organizations are sponsored by the BSU. The Cullom Ministerial Conference attempts to give practical instruction in helping prospective ministers become more effective preachers and pastors.

The Christian Education and Service Club provides an opportunity for students to study phases and problems of religious education and a chance to apply in service what is learned.

The Young Women's Auxiliary promotes the study of missions through "taps" programs in the girls' dorms and general monthly meetings.

BSU Sunday activities include Sunday School, Training Union, and fellowship. Daily vespers are held in Davis Chapel.

The BSU also has supper forums, literary discussion groups, and publishes a journal. It sends teams to nearby churches for week-end youth programs, sponsors social events and parties, and assists in the Freshman Orientation program.

An annual BSU pre-school retreat for all students interested is held immediately before the orientation program. The retreat is an orientation to the religious life on campus and seeks to enrich the spiritual life of all who attend. It will be held at Camp Hanes, Winston-Salem YMCA Camp, a few miles from the campus.

Max Deal is this year's president of the BSU.

Musical Activities

Musical organizations on the campus include the chapel choir, touring choir, male octet, opera workshop, and band. These organizations seek to exercise and develop musical talents of students and offer opportunities for association with students who have common interests in this field.

The chapel choir, largest of these groups, presents regular programs, including an annual Christmas vesper service. Thane McDonald, head of the music department, is director of the two choirs.

The touring choir stages an annual tour presenting programs for schools, civic groups and churches in various states and cities.

The male octet participates in many programs, including chapel, civic club and church programs.

The band produces halftime performances at football games, appears in parades and gives concerts. This year the band has a new director, Emerson Head.

The opera workshop, an eleven-year-old organization, is directed by Clifford Bair.

The College Songs

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST

(The Alma Mater)

Dear old Wake Forest!
Thine is a noble name;
Thine is a glorious fame,
Constant and true.
We give thee of our praise,
Adore thine ancient days,
Sing thee our humble lays,
Mother, so dear.

Dear old Wake Forest!
Mystic thy name to cheer;
Be thou our guardian near,
Fore'er and aye.
We bow before thy shrine,
Thy brow with bays entwined,
All honor now be thine,
Mother, today.

OH, HERE'S TO WAKE FOREST

(The Fight Song)

Oh, here's to Wake Forest, a glass of the finest
Red, ruddy Rhenish filled up to the brim!
Her sons they are many, unrivaled by any;
With hearts o'erflowing we will sing her hymn.

(Chorus)

Rah, Rah, Wake Forest, Rah!
Old Alma Mater's sons we are;
We'll herald her story and die for her glory,
Old Gold and Black is ever waving high.

As frosh we adore her; as sophs we explore her,
And carve our names upon her ancient walls;
As juniors patrol her; as seniors extol her,
And weep to leave fore'er her sacred halls.

Though fortune forsake us and fate o'ertake us,
We'll ne'er forget our dear old college days,
And o'er memory's treasure we'll drink without measure,
And sing fore'er our Alma Mater's praise.

ANOTHER FIGHT SONG

(This song was written by the late Dr. Hubert McNeill Poteat, who in June, 1956, retired after 48 years as professor of Latin at Wake Forest.)

Well, what do you think we're doing here today?

Why, we're out to see the Demon Deacons play,
And when the day is done,

And the victory is won,
If you listen you will hear the people say . . .

(Chorus)

Wake Forest, Wake Forest,
'Tis the grand old college we adore.
And with pride we'll tell the story
Of our Alma Mater's glory.
May she live, live, live forevermore.

Well, who do you think is on the other side?

It's the Tar Heels (Wolfpack, Devils, etc.)

And we'll take them for a ride.

The Deacs will get so rough,

And they'll treat the foe so tough,

That they'll think they've been boiled, baked and fried.

You're in the Army

Many male freshmen will take courses in the Department of Military Science and Tactics, referred to as ROTC (Reserve Officers Training Corps). The Wake Forest ROTC unit is a Senior Division General Military Science unit and was established in 1951.

After successful completion of the four-year ROTC program, students may be commissioned as second lieutenants in the Army Reserve. If selected as a distinguished military student, a student may apply for an appointment as second lieutenant in the Regular Army.

REGULATIONS

The Bulletin

Information pertaining to charges, estimated expenses, financial arrangements, requirements for degrees, courses in liberal arts, the summer term, an index of students, and listing of all professors and administrative staffs may be found in the Bulletin of Wake Forest College. The Bulletin also contains more detailed coverage of much of the material in this handbook.

The Honor System

There has been an honor system at Wake Forest for many years. But last spring the system was revised so that every student, not just the Honor Council, would share the responsibility of making the system effective.

At the end of all written work the student signs a pledge which reads: "I have neither given nor received aid on this work, nor have I knowledge of anyone doing so." Thus, the pledge has a three-fold obligation. First, the student must give absolutely no aid to anyone on written work. Second, he must ask no one for aid. Third, he must report any violation of the honor system.

It is the duty of a person who is guilty of violating the system to turn himself in to the Council. When a student sees another person cheating on an examination, he should ask that person to report himself to the Council or to the Dean. The Honor Council has full authority over such cases. A student may, however, appeal his case to the Executive Committee of the faculty after a trial by the Council.

WGA for Coeds

The Woman's Government Association is the governing body of all undergraduate resident women of the College in matters of social regulations. All women, both resident and day students, are also subject to the Honor System of the Student Government.

A separate handbook published by the WGA contains the constitution of the organization, the purpose of which, as set forth in the preamble is: ". . . to regulate all matters pertaining to the life of the women of Wake Forest College not under the jurisdiction of the Faculty; to increase a sense of individual responsibility; to further a spirit of unity among the women of the College; and to cooperate with the Faculty in creating and maintaining high ideals for women of this college."

Student Marriages

In the rules and regulations of the Woman's Government Association is the following statement:

A woman student who plans to continue her enrollment in college after marriage must have her parent or guardian notify the Dean of Women before the marriage takes place. She must secure the permission of the Executive Committee of the faculty to continue her enrollment and, except in unusual circumstances, must secure off-campus living quarters.

Beginning two years ago, the following regulation went into effect for men students in the College:

A male student who plans to continue his enrollment in college after marriage to a woman student in the College must notify the Dean of the College before the marriage takes place. He must secure the permission of the Executive Committee of the faculty to continue his enrollment.

This new regulation was adopted in accordance with the principle that a man student and a woman student guilty of the same violation of College rules should receive the same penalty.

Room Contract

Each student, in accepting his/her assignment, agrees to abide by this contract, the Constitution of the Student Body, and the dormitory regulations printed on the reverse side, and to permit, in his presence, duly authorized personnel to inspect his room and any effects in such room. Authorized personnel may enter rooms at any time to check for cleanliness or to make necessary repairs, or when it appears to the College that the safety of the students is endangered or where property damage is involved.

1. All payments for room rent are made at registration. Room rental is not refunded upon withdrawal. The occupant may not sublet the room to another student.

4. College furniture or furnishings are not to be moved from the room in which they have been placed by the College.

5. All residents must secure keys for dormitory rooms at the Office of the Director of Residences. All issues and exchanges must be made at the office. The use or possession of an unauthorized key is forbidden. A deposit is required for a key, and this may be recovered by returning the key to the Director of Residences when leaving College. All keys must be returned, even though the student plans to occupy the same room for the summer session or for the ensuing fall semester. Failure to return a room key under these circumstances leaves the student liable for any damages which may occur to the room or suite.

6. Dormitories will be open at noon on Wednesday, September 9, 1959. The dormitories will be closed at noon on the first day of the Christmas holidays and will reopen at noon on the last day of the Christmas holidays. The dormitories will close at noon on the day after Graduation Day. 7. The College assumes no liability for loss or damage to personal property.

Students who have paid their reservation fee must sign and return the original of this contract prior to August 1 for the fall semester and prior to December 15 for the spring semester.

Each student will supply his own linen (for single beds), desk lamp and bulbs, and wastebasket.

3. Curtains, draperies, pictures, pennants and clippings must be hung from the picture molding and not tacked or pasted on walls or woodwork.

4. Trunks and heavy luggage should be stored in trunk rooms.

No window fans or air conditioning units may be installed without the written permission of the Director of Residences. 12. Students are expected to cooperate with the campus guards and to identify themselves upon the request of a guard. Failure to do so will be construed as misconduct.

13. Each student is expected to display his name in the cardholder on the door.

14. Application for repairs should be made to the Housekeepers or at the office of the Director of Residences.

15. Any student who moves from any dormitory room relinquishes all rights to any further use of the room.

16. Students are expected to refrain at all times from making excessive noise, either in person or by radios, record players or other instruments capable of causing noise. Students shall not in any way interfere with the comfort or rights of other students.

17. Students who fail to comply with these regulations may forfeit their right to live in the dormitory.
